Puget Sound Shipbuilding.

[From the Olympia Transcript.]

The building of vessels on Puget Sound and the northern coast, as it is termed, is attracting a great deal of attention away from home, and is the source of a good deal of comment of late in the San Francisco papers. The advantages here are decided superior to those of California, and are freely admitted by those most prejudiced, who have seen some of the work done as being in size, model and strength equal to any ships built in the best yards of the East, and would attract attention even if hailing from New York. There has been a great increase of shipbuilding on the whole northern coast during the past season, and less on the southern, many of the noted builders having gone north and are busy constructing new vessels. There seems to be a great change in the materials, as well as in the construction of vessels now built, the trade and commerce of the coast requiring a different build from the old style of ships.

A few years ago, oak and hackmatack were only thought of to construct any vessel, but now the fleetest and most popular grain ships that enter the port of San Francisco have more yellow fir timber in them than oak, while the best lumber vessels are those fir-built ones of Puget Sound. It requires a different construction for a lumber vessel from a clipper of a few years ago, when time was the great desideratum. Now to accomplish a mean between a large carrying capacity, which latter necessarily detracts from the best sailing qualities, to a clean building, seems to be the acme desired, and which our new fir-built vessels here seem to have attained. The San Francisco Bulletin speaking of them says:

"The prejudice against fir-built vessels has well nigh vanished, and we find many old shipmasters who say they want nothing better under their feet than a vessel well put together with fir timber. The gain over earlier prejudices, and a knowledge of fir for marine purposes, has been very rapid of late. A handsome ship makes her appearance from some northern port, and nobody laments that she is not made of oak and hackmatack. She may last long enough to pass through half a dozen revolutions in the carrying trade. We now and then see old whalers, built forty years ago. But these are ungainly hulks, having long ago lost all adaptation for modern freighting purposes. The fir ship this year is good for from ten to fifteen years of service. And with the rapid changes now going on it is not an object of the first importance to require that a ship should last longer. It is now more certain than ever before that our merchant marine is to be created on this coast. We wish it were as certain that an important part of it would be turned out at this port."

The admission above of the importance of this business, which has but just begun along our waters, could hardly be expected at so early a beginning in the history of our shipbuilding. It proves that it is now but just commencing to construct the ships which are destined to do the principal carrying trade of the Pacific coast. Surely there is nothing to stop it. There is no other country where it can be done without importing large quantities of timber, while we have it at hand. Here we have huge forests of fir, the only timber needed in their construction, and above we have it admitted that there is nothing better. We can give keels and kelsons, timbers and spars, of the most beautiful proportions, and of all desirable lengths, sawed or cut as required, by sawmills in close proximity to the yards. Other materials, such as rigging, ironing, etc., are easily brought in returning lumber vessels, which visit nearly every port in the Pacific ocean, at a low freight or as ballast. Labor can be secured here as well as in other ship-yards, while the cost of living is far less in proportion. When finished, the owners find one great important item in finding cargoes ready for their vessels.

A few years of time will undoubtedly require a different class of vessels to be built here. The fishing vessels of the north may require something different from the construction of a lumber vessel, for which business we believe there will be hundreds to be built here, and the carrying vessels across the ocean to Japan and China, when our railroad is finished, whether sail or steam, must be built for both speed and carriage, and must compete with the rest of the world. All this building must be done on the northern coast, and then will be developed one of our great resources, which is now only a part of our vast hidden wealth.

"Help to the Unfortunate."

The following is from the Springfield (Mass.) Republican, and is very well done:

Helmbold, the buchu man, having heard of Judge Pierrepont's munificent donation to the republican cause, has "gone and done better" by tendering the democratic committee $40,000 for campaign purposes. It is a grand advertisement of the life saving extract, and we have no doubt the doctor will get his money back with interest. The democratic press are ecstatic over this instance of liberality, and are ready to exclaim with united voice, "See what a good thing buchu must be, that it does such good things. By their fruits ye shall know them." We have no doubt that the World would be willing, and very glad, to leave out half a page or so of returns from Pennsylvania and the West, to give room to the highly artistic picture of "Hottentots gathering buchu," which adorns so many of our walls and fences. Any gentleman in the stove or patent medicine business, who desires a wide and handsome insertion—in fact, a first class notice—by the democratic press, can have it by corresponding satisfactorily with the committee of the party.

Dr. Helmbold knows who his friends are, and where his patrons come from. Instinctively he recognizes a democratic triumph, as his triumph, and sees in the victory of Seymour and Blair fresh opportunities for the blessed extract to fulfill its mission of restoring health and happiness to the "unfortunate." We don't know any party who needs forty thousand dollars' worth of buchu more than a party called the democratic, does to-day. It does feel weak, debilitated and easily tired. It has spells of fainting and rushes of blood to the head. Its memory is impaired. Its mind is constantly dwelling on one subject (the nigger). It does wish to be left alone, to get away from everybody. Any little thing does make it start. Its sleep is broken and restless. The lustre of the eye is not as brilliant. The bloom upon its cheek is not as bright. It does not enjoy itself as well, in society or elsewhere. It does not pursue its business with the same energy, nor feel the same confidence in itself as it used to do. On all these points, anything like a conscientious answer must be exceedingly unfavorable. We know of no party that more needs a great diuretic, or needs more of it. If a little Ready Relief also could be added, and something like a Kid Strengthening Plaster could be applied, it might feel better. Where are the rest of the pill venders? Have they, too, no compassion for suffering humanity—no eye to cheap advertising?

Gordon Granger's preference for Seymour is thus explained:

"At Mission Ridge, Granger, instead of being with his corps, then under Sheridan and Wood, division commanders, pressing upward, was at a safe distance directing the movement of a battery. In a moment more our line swept onward, upward and over the rebel works. Granger looked up again and shouted, "Good God! The corps is going up the hill without orders!" "Yes," said Grant, "and Granger, you'd better go with them." Granger went. In one respect he differs from most Democrats. He never objects to Grant's silence.

The Marysville Appeal asks sarcastically "What has become of the Democratic ground-swell?"

The Appeal is alluding to the expansion of free soil during the war, when the editor of the Democrat was down a gopher hole, whence he emerged, after peace, got into Beriah Brown's cast boots and overalls, and commenced flourishing his war club and yelling like an infuriated Camanche.—Oakland Transcript.

OUR WASHINGTON LETTER.

FROM OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENT.

WASHINGTON, Saturday, Oct. 24, 1868.

THE DEMOCRATIC STAMPEDE.

The Democrats are terribly demoralized over the October State elections, and the proposition of the New York World, National Intelligencer, and other leading organs of the party to change candidates. It is amusing to read the comments of the various opposition papers. They are fighting each other with as much bitterness as they devoted to the Radicals up to the memorable 13th of October, which wrought such a change in the spirit of their dreams. The "red hots," of the Brick Pomeroy style, denounce those who favor a change of commanders in front of the enemy, as sore heads, renegades, and base traitors, and the conservatives charge the red hot fellows with being the cause of their defeat, and brand them as hot-headed fools, without discretion or practical common sense. Many of the papers and prominent men still insist on a change of front, but the majority say it will not do to "swop horses while crossing the river," and denounce the conservatives as traitors and Radicals in disguise. Poor Blair seems to catch it on every hand. Hundreds who denounce the idea of the withdrawal of Seymour think Blair ought to "resign," because his "indiscreet" speeches and his Broadhead letter, are injuring the party. Even the National Executive Committee, in their address to the Democracy of the United States, wherein they eulogized Seymour very highly, did not even mention that there is such a man as Blair living. In this city, where the Democrats were nearly all candidates for office, the party has nearly subsided. The two principal clubs broke up in less than a week after the October elections, and both have taken down their Seymour and Blair flags, which waved over Pennsylvania avenue, bearing the names of their candidates in letters that could be read for a distance of nearly a mile. Their club rooms, which were illuminated every night before, are dark now, and the place where Democracy was rampant, insolent and boisterous but a few days ago, will hear them no more forever. In the Departments, where half were Copperheads before the 13th of October, it is said that but one Democrat has been found since then, and he is regarded as a natural curiosity among Democrats, being entirely unlike the species to which he belongs. The Intelligencer of yesterday, in its anxiety to get rid of Seymour and Blair, proposes that the Democratic electors shall be voted for without reference to the present candidates, and with the understanding that if elected they will vote for such candidates as they may recognize as representing the popular will. It is barely possible, however, that even Democrats will want to know for whom they cast their ballots.

ARREST OF A DEFAULTER.

E. B. Olmstead, late disbursing clerk in the General Post Office, who embezzled about $50,000 of Government money, and fled from the city some four weeks ago, was arrested in Richmond, Va., last Sunday evening by a special agent of the Post Office Department. He was brought here on Monday night, and turned over to the Metropolitan Police. He is quartered at Bunker's Avenue Hotel, and is sumptuously provided with all the luxuries and comforts of life, and is the object of a great deal of sympathy, his wife and children being among his visitors. He is the owner of a good deal of property, and it is said is amply able to refund the money which he abstracted from the Treasury. If a poor man steals a few dollars, he is lodged in jail, and neither sympathy for him nor his family will save him from the penitentiary, but when a rich rascal is caught with thousands, "society" has a great deal of sympathy for his family, think that he was "crazy," anyhow, and deal softly with the "poor man." He was released yesterday on giving bail in the sum of $10,000.

DEMOCRATIC OUTRAGES—A NEW REBELLION.

Stimulated by the Blair letter, the rebels continue practically in a state of rebellion, and are committing murders and outrages by the wholesale all over the South. Not satisfied with dispersing the courts and county officers in Arkansas, overthrowing the local authorities, and murdering scores of innocent citizens, they follow that up by killing and wounding sixty "Radicals" at Camilla, Georgia, besieged a fort in Texas, and slaughtered the Union people of Opelousas. A few days ago they brutally murdered G. W. Smith, a member of the Texas Constitutional Convention, assassinated a South Carolina Senator while standing on the platform of a railroad car, and killed a deputy sheriff in Arkansas, who was tied to a negro, so that a single shot murdered them both. Last Saturday they assassinated the sheriff and Parish Judge of St. Mary's Parish, Louisiana; and only the day before they seized the steamboat Hesper a few miles below Memphis, and destroyed 3,340 muskets belonging to the State of Arkansas. Judge Hoge and several other representative men of the South called upon the Secretary of War day before yesterday, and represented that at least from 15 to 20 murders of loyal men are committed by the rebel Democrats each day in the western part of South Carolina alone.

INTERNAL REVENUE MATTERS.

Among the storekeepers appointed during the week, under the new tax law, are Geo. W. Downing, Nevada, and F. A. Crawford, Oregon. Only five Supervisors have been appointed up to the present time. There were twenty yet to be appointed. They are all nominated by Commissioner Rollins long ago, but Mr. McCulloch still refuses to confirm them because they are not Democrats. The Copperheads are still trying to get Rollins out in order to get these appointments and other patronage of the Internal Revenue Bureau. Since Binckley played out, a new set has been started on the track of the Commissioner by the President, who, it is said, promises the Commissionership to the man who will be the means of getting Rollins out of office. The rebel crew are now in New York taking "testimony."

THE CAMPAIGN IN THE EMPIRE STATE.

The published notices of Republican meetings held in the State of New York, which does not include all, show that forty-nine were held last Monday; fifty two on Tuesday; fifty on Wednesday; fifty-four on Thursday; forty-eight on Friday, and forty to-day; making two hundred and ninety four during the week. On Wednesday evening a great meeting was held by War Democrats, who never voted any but the Democratic ticket in their lives, at the Cooper Institute, New York city, and speeches were made by life-long Democrats in favor of the election of Grant and Colfax. The call for the meeting was signed by nearly one hundred prominent Democrats. The meeting was one of the largest and most imposing political demonstrations ever held in Cooper Institute. Seymour has taken to the stump, and is making a vain effort to rally the disorganized Democrats, but it is no use. They are in full retreat, broken, scattered and demoralized, with hundreds deserting to the enemy daily. Seymour spoke at Rochester on Wednesday, and in Buffalo on Thursday.

THE OVERLAND MAILS.

Postmaster General Randall and his assistant, McLellan, returned from New York a day or two ago, whither they went to make arrangements relative to the transportation of the California mails. The result of their negotiations is that the Pacific Mail Steamship Company will carry the document mail and such other heavy matter as the Postmaster General may direct, and the overland mail will be carried between the termini of the Union and Central Pacific Railroads by Wells, Fargo & Co., until the completion of the road, which it is thought will be accomplished in about eight months from this time.

PACIFIC RAILROAD.

The President has appointed Cornelius Wendell of this city, and Generals Blair and Buford, to examine the Union Pacific Railroad, and the Secretary of the Interior instructed them on Thursday to examine the section extending to the eight hundred and twentieth mile post west of Omaha.

THE ALABAMA CLAIMS.

On Tuesday the Secretary of State received a cable dispatch from Minister Johnson, stating that King William of Prussia has been selected to arbitrate the Alabama claims. This is not considered so favorable to the United States as if the matter had been referred to the Emperor of Russia, as stated by the associated press dispatches. King William's family relationship with Queen Victoria is very intimate.

WEST VIRGINIA.

The news from West Virginia indicates that at the election on the 22d we elected the Governor and State ticket, by from 4,000 to 5,000 majority, carried every congressional district, and elected a large majority of the members of the Legislature securing a Republican United States Senator in place of Van Winkle. K.

Death-Bed Repentance of the Democratic Party.

The Eastern exchanges are filled with remarks on the change of base proposed by some of the Democratic party between the October and November elections. We give some extracts:

ORIGIN OF THE CHANGE OF BASE MOVEMENT.

[From the Cincinnati Gazette.]

The Democratic leaders recognize in the result of the elections in Pennsylvania, Ohio, and Indiana, the virtual defeat of Seymour and Blair, and are, therefore, now, inspired by a spirit of desperation, preparing to play a card which they rejected at New York. On Wednesday a dispatch was sent from this city to New York, signed by a number of prominent Democrats, recommending the withdrawal of Seymour and Blair, and the nomination of Chase, and saying, "We are now ready for this." The New York response to this appeared in the World of yesterday morning, which advocates the withdrawal of Seymour and Blair.

CAN'T MAKE THE PEOPLE BELIEVE IT.

[From the Washington Intelligencer.]

Something more than ordinary means must be devised to reach the minds of the Conservative men still lingering reluctantly in the Republican ranks, and following, with heavy hearts and anxious fears, the men who have usurped their leadership. They must be disabused of the belief instilled into them, that the Democratic party intends or proposes to resort to any violent revolutionary means to remedy existing evils, or to go one step beyond the Constitution and the laws.

HONEST CONFESSION GOOD FOR THE SOUL.

[From the Baltimore Gazette.]

To the people of Maryland, outside of the office-seekers and the pot-house politicians, the decision of the Northern States amounts to nothing. We enjoy at present the rights and the liberties bequeathed to us by our fathers. But for our oppressed brethren of the South we feel the keenest sympathy, and as the late elections in the North seem to evidence a determination to consign them for years to come to the despotism under which they languish, we must look this possible fact in the face.

[From the Charleston Courier.]

But all is vain. The popular vote of three of the largest States has sustained Congress and overthrown, so far as they can, all Constitutional liberty in the South. These are the facts of the case. It becomes us to look them as calmly and dispassionately as we can in the face. The measure of our cup is almost full to the overflowing.

[From the Knoxville (Tenn.) Press.]

WHAT MIGHT HAVE BEEN.

We have gained two Congressmen in Pennsylvania, three in Ohio, and lost one in Indiana. The Ku-Klux Klan and Lieut-Gen. N. B. Forrest, late C. S. A., can thank themselves for this result. Had they possessed any sense at all, or even known how to hold their tongues like Grant, we would have swept all three of these States.

POMEROY ON THE AUTHOR OF THE PROPOSAL.

Traitor, fool, renegade, tool of a wicked power; uncover your head, take off your shoes, for the place where thou dost stand is holy ground! Your fire will die out, but the bush of Democracy will live for pilgrims to rest under the shade thereof, after turning aside to spit on your grave.

That the World, and one single echo, wantonly, and senselessly, and absurdly emulated the high-toned action of the original Judas, in the attempt to betray their leader, and that the former was paid for the act, we, and every other Democrat believe. It is as patent as the contempt visited upon the venal scoundrels by every Democratic journal this side of the Pacific coast, as the ridicule vented by every Republican.

[From the Richmond Inquirer.]

ANOTHER CANDID CONFESSION.

We have repeatedly declared our doubts as to the policy, not to say propriety, of the action of the South in sending delegates to the National Democratic Convention last July. Our doubts, instead of disappearing, have been strengthening every day since the Convention was held, and we think it is now a matter of great regret that our delegates attended.

[From the Washington Express.]

THE PERFIDIOUS NEW YORKERS.

If anything could have weakened our party, the course of such papers as the New York World was calculated, and possibly intended, to effect that result. We have constantly warned our friends against an expected blow from that quarter. Immediately upon the announcement of our ticket, we observed and exposed the machinations of the growlers and soreheads, and pointed them out to our friends as altogether unreliable and dangerous. They took the earliest and most effective step to stab us! We can very well afford to have the party purged of their influence.

SECRETS REVEALED IN THE FAMILY FIGHT.

[From the New York Sunday Mercury.]

The Sunday Mercury, long before the meeting of the National Convention, and during its sitting, urged the nomination of Chief Justice Chase for the Presidency. Had he been made the standard-bearer of the Democracy, the prospect ahead of us would be of a much more hopeful character. We believe that the nomination of Mr. Chase would have enabled us to carry the great States of Ohio, Indiana, and Pennsylvania on Tuesday last, and insured an easy victory in November. And the nomination of Mr. Chase would have been accomplished but for the dogged obstinacy and supreme selfishness of Mr. Pendleton, who, through his friends in the Convention, seemed determined to rule or ruin. His inordinate ambition was such that he determined, in the event of his failure to receive the nomination, it should be given to no candidate from the West, and all his energies were bent toward defeating the nominee under whose leadership the party would have been, beyond all doubt, assured of success. Coupled with this was the boastful assurance obtruded on the Convention, in season and out of season, by Mr. Pendleton's friends, that if Mr. Chase's claims were laid aside by that body, the State of Ohio with its large electoral vote, and the great West generally, would wheel into the support of the Democracy with compact step and thundering tread. The Convention was unwise enough to listen to this vaporing, and Mr. Chase, although the choice of the entire Eastern and Middle States, was defeated. Now, notwithstanding the fact that Mr. Pendleton forced the nomination of Gov. Seymour, after his own chances became hopeless, the State of Ohio has done worse than any other State in the contest just closed, and has conclusively proved the emptiness of the boasts that characterized the Ohioan's adherents in the Convention. This, we are led to hope, places Pendleton forever on the shelf. If, when Gov. Seymour was unanimously tendered the nomination—the 156 votes in the Pendleton interest having been thrown for him—he had had the manliness and nerve to peremptorily decline it, as it was expected he would do, had he then urged in accord with his natural impulse, and as he could so consistently have urged, the nomination of Chief Justice Chase, had he refused to listen to the cajoleries of Pendleton's friends, and, in the interest of the party and the country, sternly refused to be made the instrument for carrying out the spiteful scheme of the Western aspirant, he would have shown himself to be the greatest patriot within the limits of the Union, and would have made for himself a name in history second only to that of the Savior of men. In the recent contest in Ohio, the Democracy were trammeled with the dead weight of Vallandigham's Congressional nomination. This individual is the most objectionable in the party, and his occupancy of the field in preference to a more acceptable candidate has thrown into Congress for another term the most ultra Radical (since Thad. Stevens is no more) that ever raised a voice or gave a vote for tyranny in the national legislature. Schenck might have been defeated, had a candidate whose views more nearly accorded with the prevailing Democratic sentiment been put in the canvass against him. The selfish proclivity of Vallandigham, however, in forcing himself upon the party at this time, has proved to be of almost incalculable injury, both to the national canvass and to that in his own State.

The Daily Oregonian.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, NOV. [illegible] 1868.

How Oregon Was Carried

[illegible] the State [illegible] the returns [illegible] passing the [illegible] and wealth of the State [illegible] large gains [illegible] that the [illegible] vote of the State had been secured for Grant and Colfax, but we [illegible] had the [illegible] of the [illegible] that they had full and [illegible] control of the machinery of elections and [illegible] that [illegible] them in manufacturing [illegible] number of votes [illegible] the polls anything that would vote the Democratic ticket [illegible] Missouri [illegible] were fearful that a large Democratic gain would come in from those counties just in the nick of time to save the routed Democracy. And so it has proved. Everybody knows that the population of Union and Baker counties has not increased since last spring enough to send the Democratic majorities up to the figures reported. It is well known that places in Baker county where there were hundreds of men engaged in mining operations last spring are now almost or quite deserted. There is no probability that one third of the persons who are reported as having voted there have ever paid taxes in Oregon or become citizens of the State. If the number of votes reported has actually been obtained, a large proportion of them have been thrown by a migratory class who have no residence in Oregon and no right to vote in our elections. It is patent to everybody that there has been unfair dealing in this matter. A majority of the actual citizens of Oregon are for Grant and Colfax, but when it comes to voting the whole nomadic and irresponsible population of the upper country against the Republicans, there is no wonder that the Democrats carry the State. We hope to see an inquiry instituted to ascertain just where this Democratic reinforcement in the eastern counties has come from.

The Mongrels

The Charleston (S. C.) News of October 21st, publishes a letter from the Southern Democratic leader, Wade Hampton, in which that representative man of his party takes strong ground in favor of negro suffrage. While the Oregon Democrats are voting their "White Man's Ticket," and fondly supposing that they belong to a "white man's party," their political brethren of the South are talking in this manner. We quote from Hampton's letter:

> I was strongly in favor of the action taken by the State in conferring on the negro equal civil rights with the white man, and more than a year ago I advocated the policy of giving him as soon as we had the power to do so legitimately suffrage based on qualification. The Democratic Convention held here in April last recognized him as "integral part of the body politic," and declared that it would, when our party came into power, grant him partial suffrage. The State Central Club has just reaffirmed this declaration, and I have no doubt that the declaration is sustained by a vast majority of the white citizens of the State.

On the 16th of October the Democratic State Committee of Georgia published an address to the negroes, stating that as it had been alleged that their party would, if it had power, deprive the blacks of the right of suffrage they deemed it their duty to "meet this allegation and give it a positive denial. The Committee further declared, in the name of the Democratic party of Georgia that "we submit to the present status of the colored race among us, and will protect them to the full extent of our power in the right of suffrage secured to them by the Constitution of the United States and the amendments thereto, and the constitution and laws of the State." On this promise the negroes of Georgia voted Democratic, and the State goes for Seymour and Blair by 30,000 majority. The mongrels seem also to have carried the entire South. Thus the negro vote goes almost en masse for what the Oregon Democrats have called the "white man's ticket."

THE DEMOCRATIC STRONGHOLD. It is gratifying to learn that the Republicans are proposing to contest the elections in the city of New York, and expose the corruption and rottenness of that filthy maelstrom of Democracy. No doubt the Democrats legally have a great majority in New York city, but there can be no question but that majority is increased more and more every year by the most shameful frauds. In that great city probably not less than 80,000 ignorant, brutal, unprincipled men, the offscourings of the world, vote, and of course vote the straight Democratic ticket. The votes of the industrious, intelligent farmers and working men in the interior of the State are overborne by this rabble, compared with whom the Southern negroes are intelligent, cultivated and responsible citizens. This mob majority in New York city is doubling every four years. In 1864 it was nearly twice as large as in 1860, and in 1868 it is twice as large as in 1864. [illegible] it were not increased by illegal means it would be very large, but when the appliances of fraud are added it becomes enormous and frightful. [illegible] Democratic [illegible] With this vote in New York city the Democratic party would be [illegible] powerless to make [illegible] fight [illegible] struggle. With this vote they capture the great State of New York and thus have a base to operate upon. Under the rule of his brutalized [illegible] New York city has [illegible] worth mentioning [illegible] achievements of the Democracy [illegible]

The San Francisco [illegible] says: The [illegible] very nearly or quite 100 miles [illegible] Sacramento [illegible] Lake [illegible] faster and the track is again being pushed [illegible] [illegible] laying will be interrupted by winter [illegible] [illegible] Nevada is likely [illegible]

[illegible] given by the New York [illegible] to Frank Blair when that paper was trying to get him off the ticket:

"If an elephant is to pass a river on ice not quite heavy enough to bear it, he had better lose a tusk than be drowned in the stream."

STATE ITEMS

The [illegible] Indians captured [illegible] the vicinity of Klamath.

The Republicans of Polk county had a grand jubilee at Dallas on the night of the [illegible] [illegible] members of the Legislature [illegible] to resign.

A correspondent at Dallas wants to know of the [illegible] county [illegible] now [illegible] Mr. [illegible] Chapman & Co., of Multnomah.

[illegible] families [illegible] and [illegible] seventy [illegible] their claims have [illegible] settlement. The inhabitants have petitioned the county court of [illegible] to establish a precinct there.

The wife of Geo. W. Hill [illegible] was badly burned last week [illegible] is in danger [illegible]

Mr. H. [illegible] Smith of [illegible] valley [illegible] the Dalles to vote [illegible] South [illegible]

The [illegible] reserves [illegible] the result of the election which has [illegible] so overwhelmingly in favor of Grant and Colfax. It is kind and considerate to give this warning. The abolitionists of Polk will have time to make ready for the bolt that is to fall upon them.

The Copperhead concern of this city complains because we claim the Republican triumph as a victory over "rebels and traitors." Is it not a victory over Butcher Forrest, Admiral Semmes, the martyr Vallandigham, Wade Hampton, the maker of the Democratic platform, [illegible] John Lane, C. S. A., of Oregon, and a host of guerrillas from the South who have voted for Seymour and Blair in this and other States? And are not all these persons "rebels and traitors," as well as Democrats? A majority of the American people hold them to be such, and the Constitution of the United States so regards them.

Judge Wyche is still trying to figure in politics in Washington Territory. He is actually sporting to get a nomination as delegate to Congress. So happy is his faculty of adapting himself to any set of principles, that he [illegible] at all particular what party nominates him. He and all his kind may as well get ready for the change that is soon to overtake them. The 4th of March is near at hand.

One of the Copperhead papers of Oregon boasts that Seymour has carried "all the carpet-bag States." So then, it has happened according to the prediction of Gen. Jasper that "the Democrats, for every white vote they have lost in the North have gained twenty wool and shinbone votes down South." The white man's party is marching on at a rate which will soon entirely distance John Brown's soul.

Democratic papers all over the country are reading each other out of the party on account of late differences growing out of the proposition to change the Democratic ticket. It is ludicrous enough to witness this quarrel among the "shoo'd dead," and their manifest determination to deny to each other the rites of sepulture.

The Herald is very joyful about the great Democratic victory (!) in Oregon. It says the State is "O. K." "O. K." are evidently the letters it meant to use. The type blundered.

Mr. John Nugent, the former editor and publisher of San Francisco Herald, announces that he will resume the publication of that paper on the first of December.

Brick Pomeroy's Democrat is now the recognized organ of the Democracy of New York city, the course of the World having nearly destroyed the power of that paper.

A magic city is springing up in Bear river valley at the supposed winter terminus of the Union Pacific Railroad. The embryo city is called Gilmer.

Every Democrat we have met for a week looks as if he had "heard the slogan."

OUR SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH

California Election Returns.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 10.—The Committee of the Board of Ballots cast at the recent election have counted the ballots of several wards without finding any material deviation from the returns heretofore published. The Supervisor's packages from the Ninth and Tenth wards were found to tally correct. Several other wards are to be recounted, but are expected to come out all right. The Bulletin says official and complete returns from several counties, change slightly the figures heretofore given in our columns. They show Democratic losses in excess of gains, amounting to 41, and Union losses in excess of gains amounting to 22. The totals for all the counties heard from, are changed as follows: Grant [illegible] Seymour 5,6[illegible]. Grant's present majority [illegible] a slight gain over yesterday's count. The counties yet to be heard from definitely are, Humboldt, which gave 27[illegible] majority for Gorham, and Inyo and San Diego, which gave 185 for Haight. If these figures are added to the above totals we have a majority for Grant of 571. Returns from Third Congressional District, including [illegible] account of Humboldt from last years figures, foot up 1,830 for Grant and 1,81[illegible] for Seymour, showing a majority of 15 for Grant. The vote for Congressmen is less than these figures, and it is still doubtful whether Hartson or Johnson is elected. Should Humboldt show a considerable increase, Hartson may be counted in by a bare majority. Probably an official count will be necessary to determine the result.

Official returns have been received from the following counties: Marin—Grant's maj 96, Hartson's maj 51. Sonoma—Seymour, [illegible] and Johnson 627 maj. Amador—Seymour, 1,22[illegible] and Grant, 1,109. Inyo—Grant's maj., 98. Hartson's maj., 30. Alameda, 593 maj. for Grant. Butte, 340 maj. for Grant. Mono, 39 maj. for Grant. Sacramento, 363 maj. for Grant. San Joaquin, 2[illegible]4 maj. for Grant. Colusa [illegible] for Seymour. Complete returns not official have been received from the following counties: Santa Barbara, 127 maj. for Grant. Lake, [illegible] maj. for Seymour. San Bernardino, 12[illegible] maj. for Seymour. Plumas [illegible] maj. for Grant.

Leading lawyers and others [illegible] petition the Board of Supervisors not to rebuild the City Hall, but to sell the entire property and build on the plaza.

Quinn, a hostler at Portney's stables, was dangerously stabbed by Wm. Black, a hack driver, yesterday.

WOLFE'S

CELEBRATED

AROMATIC

SCHIEDAM SCHNAPPS,

TO THE CITIZENS OF OREGON:

I BEG LEAVE TO CALL THE ATTENTION OF THE citizens of Oregon to my celebrated AROMATIC SCHIEDAM SCHNAPPS, a medicinal Diet Drink of eminently salutary qualities manufactured by myself exclusively at my factory at Schiedam, in Holland.

In Gravel, Gout and Rheumatism, in Obstructions of the Bladder and Kidneys its effects are prompt, decided and invariably reliable.

It is now some twenty years since the Proprietor first introduced it to the American public, and during that time he has received over 3,000 letters from physicians endorsing it as the purest liquor they have ever used in their practice.

It is made from barley of the finest quality, selected with great care from the products of the most celebrated grain growing districts, is flavored with the essence of the aromatic juniper berry of Italy, and is rectified by a peculiar process which expels from the spirit every acrid particle.

As a means of preventing and correcting the disagreeable and after dangerous effects produced in the stomach and bowels by a change of water, a visitation to which travelers, new settlers, and all unacclimated persons are peculiarly liable—the

SCHIEDAM AROMATIC SCHNAPPS

Will be found absolutely infallible, while, in cases of dropsy, gravel, obstructions of the kidneys, diseases of the bladder, strictures, dyspepsia and general debility, it is recommended most emphatically by the most distinguished men here of the medical profession.

It is put up in quart and pint bottles in cases with the name of the undersigned on the bottle and cork, and a fac simile of his signature on the label. For sale by all respectable druggists and country merchants.

Are you WEAK, DEBILITATED, NERVOUS? Is your sleep disturbed? Do you have palpitation of the heart, or an inclination to melancholy? Diseases of such nature require a prompt DIURETIC, which will be found in

WHO WE A STREET COMMISSIONER?—Within the last few days we have been asked this question [illegible] times. We are unable to reply positively. This [illegible] of the city government [illegible] that after [illegible] [illegible] the history becomes [illegible] then and then an [illegible] in the [illegible] expenditures to [illegible] There are [illegible] [illegible] evidences [illegible] [illegible] which [illegible] the gutters [illegible] the streets [illegible] sidewalks which were ripped up weeks ago [illegible] in the condition of man traps and why that [illegible] of the places the crossings are broken and dangerous. Knowing [illegible] requiring all [illegible] be removed [illegible] the verge of the curb or [illegible] the lst of [illegible] at the will be [illegible] very certain [illegible] are allowed to let their [illegible] just where they did before—two, three or four feet [illegible] the curb These are [illegible] perhaps all the things which would excite the wonder of a stranger [illegible] to show that there are evidences against the [illegible] of a street commissioner. If we have one he [illegible] himself into no credit by compelling parties [illegible] with the law in respect to street and sidewalk [illegible] Whenever we see any evidence that the [illegible] is up and after these violators of the law [illegible] fully present him in the light of a competent [illegible] and a public benefactor.

[illegible] BEND—HOW TO DO IT.—We have heard [illegible] we don't say it—that [illegible] [illegible] Bend has broken out in this city that the [illegible] actually been seen. If it is too much [illegible] [illegible] we suppose that Fate has always some [illegible] of female fashions in store for us—why not [illegible] Bend?) there will be of course lots [illegible] [illegible] who will want to know right off how [illegible] In one of the first class dailies of New York [illegible] find the following poetic directions which may [illegible]

> [illegible] your horses and I'll tell you
> Tell you simply [illegible]
> How they did it how they do it
> And should you ask me [illegible] know
> I will tell you I have done it

> [illegible] a hoop of small dimensions,
>
> [illegible] a dress of closest tension
> [illegible] a strap around your waist,
> [illegible] two others down your haunches;
> [illegible] with body bent to nearly [illegible],
> [illegible] them tightly, draw them closely

No Work the Hardest Work.

Ho! ye who at the anvil toil,
And strike the sounding blow,
Where from the burning iron's breast
The sparks fly to and fro,
While answering to the hammer's ring
And fire's intenser glow—
Oh! while ye feel 'tis hard to toil
And sweat the long day through,
Remember it is harder still
To have no work to do.

Ho! ye that till the stubborn soil,
Whose hard hand guides the plow,
Who bend beneath the summer sun
With burning cheek and brow—
Ye deem the curse still clings to earth
From olden time till now—
But while ye feel 'tis hard to toil
And labor all day through,
Remember it is harder still
To have no work to do.

Ho! ye who plow the sea's blue field,
Who ride the restless wave—
Beneath whose gallant vessel's keel
There lies a yawning grave;
Around whose bark the wintry winds
Like fiends of fury rave—
Oh! while ye feel 'tis hard to toil
And labor long hours through,
Remember it is harder still
To have no work to do.

Ho! all who labor—all who strive,
Ye wield a lofty power;
Do with your might, do with your strength,
Fill every golden hour;
The glorious privilege to do
Is man's most noble dower.
Oh! to your birthright and yourselves,
To your own souls be true!
A weary, wretched life is theirs
Who have no work to do.

AN ESSAY ON TOBACCO—BY A SMALL BOY.—Tobacco grows something like cabbage, but never saw none of it boiled, although I have eaten boiled cabbage and vinegar on it, and heard men say that cigars that were given to them on election day for nothing, were cabbage leaves. Tobacco stores are mostly kept by wooden Ingins, who stand at the door and try to fool little boys by offering them a bunch of cigars, which is glued into the Ingun's hand, and is made of wood also. Hogs do not like tobacco and neither do I. I tried to smoke a cigar once, and it made me feel like Epsom salts. Tobacco was invented by a man named Walter Raleigh. When the people first saw him smoking, they thought he was a steamboat, and as they had never saw a steamboat, they were frightened. My sister Nancy is a girl. I don't know whether she likes tobacco or not. There is a young man named Leroy who comes to see her. I guess she likes Leroy. He was standing on the steps one night and he had a cigar in his mouth, and he didn't know as she would like it, and she said, "Leroy, the perfume is agreeable." But the next morning, when my big brother Tom lighted his pipe, Nancy said: "Get out of the house, you horrid creature; the smell of tobacco makes me sick." Snuff is Ingin meal made out of tobacco. I took a little snuff once, and then sneezed.

ANTIDOTE FOR ALL POISONS.—A plain farmer says: "It is now over twenty years since I learned that sweet oil would cure the bite of a rattlesnake, not knowing it would cure other kinds of poison. Practice, observation and experience have taught me that it will cure poison of any kind, both on man and beast. I think no farmer should be without a bottle of it in his house. The patient must take a tablespoonful of it internally, and bathe the wound with it for a cure. To cure a horse it requires eight times as much as for a man. It is an antidote for arsenic and strychnine. It will cure bloat in cattle by eating too freely of fresh clover; it will cure the sting of bees, spiders and other insects, and will cure persons who have been poisoned by a low, running vine growing in the meadows called ivy.

"Blair Badge" is the latest name for the florid thing visible on some noses.

Maine sent 1,171 Smiths, 777 Browns, and 385 Joneses into the war.

Illinois is worth $124,027,870.

Boston has 34,716 voters.

Mr. Zachariah Wilson, Portland, Oregon, writes:

"It requires an article of real merit and intrinsic value to sustain itself during the stormy ordeal of public experiments. Murray's Improved Magic Oil has stood the test of time and has not been found wanting. The astonishing efficacy that I experienced—its curing me of Chronic Rheumatism and Lumbago, of long standing entitles Dr. Murray's Premium Lung and Liver Balsam and Improved Magic Oil to a high rank in the list of remedies for Rheumatism, Lumbago, Ear-ache, Distressing Pains etc."

John English of Howell Prairie, Marion county, Oregon writes:

"I was taken with a severe attack of Rheumatism in my knee joints and extremities accompanied with a severe cough for two months so that I had to use crutches, meanwhile trying all remedies in common use. Your Magic Oil and Balsam gave me instant relief, and I was able to walk in four days without crutches. I have not felt any rheumatism since. I have seen your family medicines used with excellent success. I have no hesitancy in saying it is the best preparation for family use ever tried for those complaints. I am now on my way to South America after residing in Oregon twenty years. I must now have two dozens Balsam and two dozens of your Magic Oil, dollar bottles, as I am sure they are the best remedies in Oregon, and I would not be without them in my house, and when this package of medicine is exhausted I will send to your office in Portland for a fresh supply.
J. ENGLISH"

HIRAM SMITH'S

Ophthalmic Panacea!

IS WITHOUT DOUBT THE MOST WONDERFUL EYE HEALER that has ever been discovered.

IT CURES the most stubborn and aggravated cases of CHRONIC INFLAMMATIONS, GRANULATED LIDS, FILMS, &c., as has been sufficiently demonstrated during the few months in which it has been brought to public notice. The proprietor feels so confident of its INFALLIBILITY that he WARRANTS A CURE OR REFUNDS THE MONEY. It does not hurt the eyes or burn, and a trial of it is therefore without injury or expense to the patient if a cure is not effected.

It has cured cases of FIVE, SIX, NINE, FIFTEEN and even EIGHTEEN YEARS standing in Harrisburg and Linn county, Oregon, and its vicinity, to which the following persons will bear witness:

E. B. MOORE, NATHANIEL BELL,
A. L. WALLACE, G. B. WARD,
Mrs. MONTGOMERY, JOHN M. HOLLOWAY,
W. D. PORTER, ROBT. RAMSEY,

And others in that vicinity.

Persons afflicted with the distressing scourge of diseased eyes are advised to give this remedy a fair trial, on the NO CURE NO PAY and NO INJURY plan.

TO THE UNFORTUNATE.

NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES

Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,

616 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhoea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences, or from virus absorbed into the system! Look at their pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends, attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life-destroying maladies—see that they are cared for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has made private disease his especial study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing, with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes; pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of affecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies, should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions for use, for Ten Dollars, sent in registered letter or through Wells, Fargo & Co.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders, who, with bogus sworn-to certificates, dupe the unwary. Some of the self-styled doctors, whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places, are tradesmen, and became too lazy to work at their trades. Some are tinsmiths, shoemakers, newspaper carriers, intelligence office keepers, etc. Look over the San Francisco Directory, and you will not find their Medical Institutes in it, but you will find their former occupations in it. Look at the Directory for 1862 and 1863. The only way to avoid imposition is to make enquiry—it will cost you nothing, and may save you many regrets; for, as advertising physicians, in eight cases out of ten, are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr. Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles, certificates, pretended patient's letters, etc. Dr. Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure.

Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 616 Kearney street, corner Commercial, San Francisco. Post Office Box 252.

REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 252 ON THE LETTER
